Grubb & Ellis|Las Vegas Announces Key Appointments

Continued growth results in additional team members

LAS VEGAS (Aug. 28, 2009) – Grubb & Ellis|Las Vegas, a leading local real estate services firm, announced today the promotion of Kristen M. Campbell to business operations manager and the hiring of Renae E. Russo as assistant business operations manager.

In her new role, Campbell is responsible for client service, marketing, market research, transactions and staff management. Campbell joined Grubb & Ellis|Las Vegas in April 2008 as assistant business operations manager.

Prior to joining the firm, Campbell worked as a sales assistant at CB Richard Ellis. Some of her responsibilities included creating and distributing marketing materials, coordinating transactions, providing client and customer service, assisting clients and sales personnel in the lease negotiation process, conducting research and updating client and property databases. She earned a bachelor's degree from the University of Akron.

As assistant business operations manager Russo is responsible for coordinating and assisting in various aspects of office operations, managing advertising and publicity, coordinating special events, conducting new hire orientations and reviewing completed transaction files.

Prior to joining the firm, Russo worked as a transaction manager at Colliers International for 2 years. Some of her responsibilities included reviewing contracts, leases and various other legal documents to ensure all paperwork was compliant and complete. She was also responsible for maintaining and updating client and property databases, along with tracking all incoming revenue.
