Grubb & Ellis|Las Vegas Announces a Promotion and Hires a Marketing Professional

LAS VEGAS (March 22, 2010) – Grubb & Ellis|Las Vegas, a leading local real estate services firm, announced today the promotion of Dave A. Dworkin to research manager and the hiring of Scott Price as marketing assistant.

Dworkin began his career with Grubb & Ellis|Las Vegas in 2005 as research analyst. In his new role, Dworkin is responsible for directing all market research initiatives for the firm, including overseeing all mapping projects, maintaining the integrity and accuracy of the company's proprietary commercial property database, analyzing market changes and trends, preparing a quarterly trend report for office and industrial specialities and writing the annual forecast report which covers industrial, office, retail, investment, land and multi housing sectors.

As marketing assistant, Price is responsible for the preparation and distribution of the marketing materials for the Industrial Team of Wasiak and Walker as well as providing administrative support to the industrial division. Prior to joining the firm, Price worked for Century 21 where he provided sales support for seven real estate agents. As marketing coordinator, he led a bulk mail advertising unit, designed advertisements for local and regional magazines, developed his team's Web site and provided customer service.
